

THE WEALTH OF HELENA.

Citizen Taxpayers Who Have Property Amounting to $10,000 and Upwards.

Quite a Number of Women Who Have Enough of This World's Goods.

Only the Names of the Most Solid Given—Plenty of Others Who Contribute to Our Support.

Helena claims to be the wealthiest city, according to its population, of any city in the United States. This is a pretty broad assertion to make, but the Queen City of the Mountains backs its claims with figures which are indisputable and conclusive evidence. The assessor's returns for the fiscal year shows the amount of taxable wealth in Lewis and Clark county to be $15,439,066, of which fully 90 per cent. is in the city of Helena. This is an increase of about $2,000,000 over last year, and the prospects for the establishing of new enterprises for the coming year give a basis for asserting that $20,000,000 will be the total taxable wealth of Lewis and Clark county in 1890. The following table purports to give a full and complete list of all the taxpayers in this county who are worth $10,000 and more. The tax levy for the year is about seventeen mills for the city and county, and each person mentioned herein will contribute at least $100 taxes for the support of the city and county government, which in round numbers will amount to $154,390.96. Added to this there are at least five hundred taxpayers worth less than $10,000. An interesting feature of this list of taxpayers is the large number of women who are comfortably "fixed" and who as a rule are widows:
